The refund will be given back to the agency or the student within 30 days after applying for the refund. Below is the information of different refund system before the student's course starts:

Before the student's course start:

- 3 weeks before departure: 100% except registration fee
- 2 weeks before departure: Registration fee, 1 week tuition and 1 week accommodation fee is deducted.
- 1 week before departure: Registration fee, 2 week tuition 2 week and accommodation fee is deducted.
- Enrollment of less than 4 weeks: Registration fee and 30% of total payment is deducted.
- If a student cancels the study after the full payment is made, refund will be given but the bank transfer fee will be the student's responsibility.

Students who are enrolled in Philinter are entitled to a refund once they cancel their study. All refund will be subject to the rules and regulations of the institution provided below.

After the student's course start:

1. Students who opted to reduce/cancel their study period within the first week (Monday to Friday on working hours) of their stay will be given a 70% refund of the total tuition fee and accommodation fee of the remaining weeks.
2. Students who decided to reduce/cancel their study period on the following weeks after the first week (Monday to Friday) will be subjected to the refund policies of the school where:
  - a) For a remaining period of four (4) weeks and above, 50% of the accommodation fee only of the remaining weeks will be refunded to the student.
  - b) For a remaining period of less than four (4) weeks, no refund will be given to the student at all.
  - c) Short term of study for 1-4 weeks is not refundable even if students request a refund in the first week.

Cancellation of course extension refund

1. Students who want to cancel their extension of study period, 3 weeks before the class start will be given a 100% refund of total tuition fee and accommodation fee.
2. Students who want to cancel their extension of study period, 2 weeks before the class start will be given a 70% refund of total tuition fee and accommodation fee of the remaining weeks.
3. Students who want to cancel their extension of study period, 1 week before the class start will be given a 50% refund of total tuition fee and accommodation fee of the remaining weeks.
4. Students who want to cancel their extension of study period on the first week of stay, will be given a 30% refund of accommodation fee of the remaining weeks only. The short-term extension of study period (less than 4 weeks) students are not applicable, even if they requested on their first week of study.

10. Changing of Course

There are times when students become interested in the special courses and would like to enroll themselves in it. Though they are allowed to change, the Coordinators and the Managers agreed to regulate the number of students and the number of times that a student can change a course.

1) No Refund Policy

Once the student changes his/her course and did not finish it, the student will not receive any form of refund for the remaining weeks that he/she has not taken. This particularly applies when a student changes from a course cheaper than his/her previous course. (Downgrade)

2) No Bouncing Back Policy

Once the student decides to change course, he/she cannot go back anymore to his/her previous course, most especially if the student has not completed all the requirements for the said course.

3) Customization of Classes

A student cannot customize their classes without the consent of the Coordinator. The Coordinator must ensure that the customization is in the best interest of the student's academic goals and the department. Additionally, it must be determined if the customization would still allow the student to meet all the course requirements in order to earn a Certificate of Completion.

If permitted, the student can diminish the value of the course WITHOUT refund. However, the student will have to pay the appropriate fees if he/she wishes to increase the value of the course.

(E.g. If a student wanted to take more SGC than 1.1 classes, the student is allowed to do so but without refund. However, if the student wanted to take more 1.1 classes, more than what is required, the student has to pay the appropriate fees.)

4) Processing Fee

Students may change their course, but once they change over and over again, they are charged a processing fee as follows:

- 1st Change / free of charge
- 2nd Change / Php 800
- 3rd Change / Php 1,600
- 4th Change / Php 2,400

The student shall be charged with an incremental fee once he/she changes course the second time and up. The fees are only applicable to students who have not completed their course and opted to transfer to a new course.

8. Downgrading/ Upgrading Course

1. Students who wish to downgrade their course should decide within the first week (Monday to Friday on working hours) of their study period. Otherwise, it will no longer be refundable.
2. Once the student finally decided to change their course within the first week (Monday to Friday on working hours) of study, one week worth of tuition fee will be deducted from the refund. Students will start their new course on the following week given that all refunds & payments have been settled.
3. Though students are allowed to downgrade their course on the succeeding weeks, no refund will still be given to the student.
4. If a student wants to change course higher than the price of his/her original course, the student will be subjected to the availability of the slots of the preferred course. The student will also have to pay the amount of that given course.

9. Attendance Policy

Students are given limitations as to the number of allowable times that they can be absent from their classes. Students are expected to follow the guidelines strictly. Strict implementation of Philinter's Attendance Policy shall be adhered at all times.

1. General Rules

- 1) Students who will be absent from their class twice (2x) in a week (successive or with gaps) WITHOUT ANY VALID REASONS will be removed from the class for one (1) week. In like manner, students who will be absent from their class more than 10 times for 4 weeks without any valid reasons will be removed from the class for 4 weeks and given the 1st warning. The absence will be considered valid due to one or more of the following reasons:
  - Health reasons with the doctor's advice
  - Immigration reasons
  - Other reasons as approved by the Management
- 2) Students who got an attendance of below 90% will not only be denied of his/her certificate but will also be removed from his/her 1:1 classes.

2. Guaranteed Courses

- 1) Students who are taking guaranteed courses like IELTS and TOEIC are required to get an attendance of 96% both in their regular classes and their mandatory self-study classes at night.
- 2) Night duty managers are required to check the student's attendance during their mandatory self-study classes.
- 3) Students are only allowed to do self-study classes in the Study Hall.
- 4) If the student will not be able to get the 96% minimum attendance requirements, he/she will be immediately removed from the guaranteed course.

11. General Information

1. All school promotions shall be counted as a deduction and cannot be included as part of the refund for the student.
2. In case of death in the immediate family such as parents, siblings, spouse or child 50% of the tuition fee and accommodation fee can be claimed as refund on the remaining term. However a death certificate or any medical document must be presented as a proof before the refund will be released. No proof, no refund.
3. Whether the student is delayed or does not show up on the designated date of arrival, no refund will be given to the student at all.
4. Students who are expelled and who violated the school rules and regulations will not be given any refund.
5. Students who want to make changes on their study period or changes on their courses shall inform the office during working hours only from Mondays to Fridays from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM except Weekends and Holidays. This shall be strictly followed at all times.
6. Official holidays in the Philippines are considered to be a "No Class" day for students and shall therefore give them time to relax. Although, there may be times when Philinter will conduct Special Classes to students depending on the longevity of the holidays. In this case, students will be updated from time to time for special announcements. In addition, these holidays shall be considered to be part of the payment for the entire study period and students will not be given any refund on these days.
7. All refunds will be computed accordingly and an invoice will be issued to students to give them a breakdown of the total amount that they need to settle.

Exemptions and Rights

1. Philinter cannot be held responsible in cases of natural disasters, war, unexpected events, airline delays or cancellations and so on.
2. Philinter shall not be held responsible regarding accidents happening outside the school premise due to circumstances beyond Philinter's reasonable control such as any loss of life, accidents, diseases, loss or damage of property and so on.
3. Students can only be compensated by claiming from their insurance company and its policy.
4. Classes are held from Monday to Friday, 5 Days a week.
5. Philinter has the right to change the courses and its commencement dates, tuition fees as a result of changes in exchange rates, changes in government laws, or other reasons beyond our control.
6. Students who show no interest in studying through non-attendance and curfew violation, will be cautioned and finally expelled if there is no change in behavior.
7. Any severe damage done to the reputation of the school will result to immediate expulsion. Compensation cannot be claimed by the student.
8. Philinter has the right to inform the student's home and agent before and after expulsion of the student. For more information, please check our website at www.philinter.com (Terms and Conditions). You should understand and consent to the school rules and refund regulations.
