

Business English 3

Lesson 1. Everything Will Work Out Just Fine

Elaine: Mark, you look so worried. What happened?

Mark: Well, I wanted to get into that seminar, but I just found out that there are so many people on the waiting list. I guess chances are probably slim.

Elaine: I wouldn't say that! Many people might drop the seminar and then there will be some openings. You never know.

Mark: I hope so.

Elaine: Come on, cheer up!

Don't worry so much.

Everything will work out just fine.

Vocabulary/Expression:

1. Well, I wanted to get into that seminar, but I just found out that there are so many people on the waiting list.
2. I guess chances are probably slim.
3. I wouldn't say that!
4. Many people might drop the seminar and then there will be some openings.
5. Everything will work out just fine.

Make Sentences:

1. get into - _____

2. on the waiting list - _____

3. chances are slim - _____

4. openings - _____

5. A: _____

B: I wouldn't say that! _____

6. A: _____

B: _____. You never know.

7. A: _____

B: _____. Everything will work out just fine.

Lesson 2. Let's Keep Our Fingers Crossed and Hope for the Best

Drew: You look so serious, Anne. What's on your mind?

Anne: I'm worried about the interview tomorrow. It's so important to me. You know, I've been looking for a job for three months, and this is my first interview.

Drew: Don't worry too much, Anne. Everything will work out just fine.

Anne: I hope so.

Drew: Come on, Anne.
Let's keep our fingers crossed and hope for the best.

Vocabulary/Expression:

1. You look so serious, Anne. What's on your mind?
2. Don't worry too much, Anne. Everything will work out just fine.
3. Let's keep our fingers crossed and hope for the best.

Make Dialogs:

1. What's on your mind?
2. Everything will work out just fine.
3. Let's keep our fingers crossed and hope for the best.

Lesson 3. Let's Call It a Day, Shall We?

Jane: This was a very good meeting, Cindy.

Cindy: I'm happy that we've finally cleared up some problems.

Jane: I think we have. Is there anything else to discuss?

Cindy: No, that's all, I guess.

Jane: Then, let's call it a day, shall we?

Cindy: All right. See you later.

Jane: See you.

Vocabulary/Expression:

1. I'm happy that we've finally cleared up some problems.
2. Is there anything else to discuss?
3. Then, let's call it a day, shall we?

Make Dialogs:

1. clear up
2. Is there anything else to ____?
3. Let's call it a day

